Club Boys on the Food Front

Local Boys Are Producing More Per Man than Average Record for the Nation

Randall county farm boys are doing their share in feeding the fighting forces of Uncle Sam.

Final reports for 29 4-H Club boys for 1944 on the "feed a fighter" project indicate that Randall county farm boys are producing food at a higher rate per man than the National rate for all farm workers.

A tabulation of 29 reports complete for the year shows that these boys produced for sale an average amount equivalent to the food requirement of 14 soldiers in the U. S. Army for each boy.

Only the actual food products sold are counted in these reports. No credit is given for food for home use or for other projects where no food for home use or for other projects where no food is directly available to the National total supply of food reserves.

Each boy's production is counted in the ratio that his actual labor contributes to the production of the farm. A system of point values is used to convert each boy's volume of food production into the equivalent of total food requirements for one soldier for one year. Each item of production is counted in terms of its true food equivalent value.

Twenty of the 29 boys completing reports for the year produced an average food equivalent to feed 18.5 soldiers for one year for each boy competing. The twenty boys are named in the order of their total volume of production: Douglas Brazil, Richmond Hales, Walton Byrd, Jones Hales, Billy Bible, Donnie Stroup, Tommy Gooch, James Bible, Billy Dugan, Richard Beckman, Arthur Spiser, Franklin Bauer, Lee Roy Bauer, Truman Price, Meade Michael, Melvin Smith, Lowell Smith, Jack Conatser, Billy Moore and Stanley Lair.

The following boys also qualified for membership in the "feed a fighter" club by producing enough food to feed one or more soldiers: Landon Barrett, Dennis Burrus, Ray Burrus, Dan Vorwald, William Vorwald, Neil Wall, Easton Wall, James Lair, Dwain Currie and Golden Currie.

Lt. Bob Zigeler Sends Donation to Red Cross

Contributions to the Canyon Chapter of the Red Cross are coming in from far places. Lt. Bob Ziegler, in Italy sent his check to his mother for her to turn to the proper sources.

In his letter he states that he had started over to see Lt. Hud Prichard but heard that he was missing in action. Upon hearing that Lt. Ziegler turned back to his unit "feeling awfully low." He stopped in at the Red Cross center. Here they told him that Lt. Prichard had returned to his unit. They made the telephone connection between the two and allowed the two Lieutenants to have a long conversation. Lt. Ziegler says, "Boy my feelings were then high. The Red Cross is simply wonderful. This is only a tiny example of the care they take of us; the things they do for us are too numerous to name. I certainly want to be in on helping them with funds."

A large truck business was done by Mr. Hawks while the family lived there. Art stated Monday that he has made no plans for the immediate future. His family has lived in Amarillo since last fall.

Tony Rossi Is Home From War Zone of Europe

Pfc. Tony Rossi, who has been in a motorized regiment of the 90th Division in France has been returned to the United States and is now at McClaskey Hospital, Temple, Texas receiving treatment for shell shock.

Pfc. Rossi was on the front in the early part of January. A 155mm shell burst about 10 yards from where he was standing. The shell having landed in the mud blew straight up rather than spread out as it would have had it landed on dry soil. The result of this type of explosion was to give Pfc. Rossi a severe shell shock from percussion rather than wounds that he would have received in all probability had the earth been dry.

Mrs. Rossi left Canyon Saturday evening and has joined her husband in Temple. Before he went to the army three years ago Pfc. Rossi was employed with Phillips "66." Mrs. Rossi has been employed by Bellah's Food and Market since her husband has been away.

Dr. Morelock Resigns From Sul Ross College

Dr. H. W. Morelock, one of several members of the faculty of West Texas State College who went from Canyon to college presidencies, has resigned his position at Sul Ross State College at Alpine, effective August 31, 1945.

Mr. Morelock was head of the English department.

Besides making a reputation as a most unusual English teacher, Mr. Morelock served the college as dean of men, was on several major committees, delivered many lectures, and worked out a plan under which members of women's study clubs could qualify for college credits in courses which were furnished by the college.

In 1923 he resigned to succeed R. L. Marquis in the presidency of the young college at Alpine. Mr. Marquis was another president whose early college experience was gained on the campus of West Texas State, and he afterward headed the college at Denton.

Jowell Section First Completed

Urge All Citizens to Make Their Contributions At the Earliest Minute

The Jowell community of Randall County has contributed 100 percent to the Red Cross War Fund Drive, and it gave the most per person of any community that has reported up to this time. O. M. Scott was community chairman, and his neighbors helped him finish his job in record time. J. B. Robertson, former chairman, was away from home, but he sent his money so that it was on hand March first when the drive opened. For four years in succession the Jowell folks have increased their per capita contributions.

County War Fund chairman, T. V. Reeves, says that people who live in the country have always been most generous and prompt in taking care of their Red Cross interests.

In Canyon collections fell off sharply when reports came that Amarillo had finished raising its quota, and workers believe that perhaps some people are under the impression that Randall county had also finished its fund raising.

Money for the Red Cross may be left at the City Hall, the First National Bank, W. J. Wooten's office or at the Business Office or Registrar D. A. Shirley's office at the College.

People in the country are requested to help their local War Fund chairman by seeing him. However, if it is easier for them to make their contributions at one of the Canyon places, their contributions will be credited just the same.

"There is no doubt but that Randall county will make its full quota, for Randall county people always do," said one of the workers. It is hoped that a report to the National Red Cross can say that the quota has been raised by March 10. Reports are called for each week during the month. Roberts county has already finished its War Fund Drive.

He is the navigator on a twin-engine Mosquito, making unescorted weather reconnaissance flights over Europe to gather data for future air and ground operations.

These missions, over areas heavily defended by the enemy, were flown in unarmed aircraft. Information was obtained which was of vital importance in connection with operations against the enemy. The courage, cool judgment and skill displayed by Lt. Davis reflect great credit upon himself and the Armed Forces of the United States."

The son of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Davis, Canyon, Lt. Davis is married to the former Miss Edythe Webb, 1062½ East Broadway, Long Beach, California. Editorials

Here we are starting a new year at the Canyon News office. Your newspaper starts its 50th year this week. This time next year, the Canyon News will have attained the age of half a century. Of course such an age for a newspaper is nothing unusual. There are many county seat newspapers in the Panhandle now which have attained the age of 50 years. But there are only a very, very few which have been under so few publishers as the Canyon News. And again, there are only two or three which have been under the same management for 35 consecutive years, as has the Canyon News. The News was started by Mrs. R. W. Morgan, who sold to George A. Brandon. C. O. Keiser bought the newspaper in 1908, and employed the present owner in 1910. Mr. Keiser continued as a stockholder until 1920, but for nearly 35 years the Newsman has been at the helm of this publication. Not many newspapers which are 49 years old can boast of having had only four owners in that length of time—and under the same management for more than a third of a century. The News hopes that the war will be over by March, 1946, when we celebrate the 50th birthday of the publication. We would like to observe the date in a fitting manner.

Aubrey Williams has been rejected by the Agriculture Committee of the Senate. He is the New Deal candidate for head of the billion dollars rural electrification program of the President, in spite of the fact that he knows nothing about eelctrical plants. He is a free spender—of your money—which amply qualifies him for the job. He announces that he will make a fight for the job. Evidently he has the blessings of the President in the fight, or he would not be so bold in his attempt to get the job. We are advised from Washington that Williams may get the job. The administration is sold on the idea of government ownership of huge electric plants over the nation which shall develop rural America. The people like the idea, but they are afraid of placing an impractical dreamer at the head of such a huge undertaking. We shall see what we shall see.

Several months ago we heard a foreign correspondent say that Germany would not collapse. He predicted that guerrilla warfare would continue for two or three years as Hitler withdrew his forces to the mountains. At that time we thought of what had happened in 1918. In fact, this theory sounded batty. Now, we see that this opinion, is adopted by many military observers as the actual program of Hitler—if he has a program. The German people have no hope. If the United Nations do not kill them, Hitler's henchmen will shoot them in the back. In spite of the promises of the Big Three not to punish the German people, Hitler seems to have a stronger hold on the nation than was ever anticipated.

John L. Lewis has laid his demands before the mine owners. He is firm in his demands. The owners will probably reject the demands; the government will again take over the mines; Harold Ickes will boss the property, and will give Lewis practically all that he demands; the price of coal will be boosted to meet the increased pay to the miners; the price of all war goods to the government will then have to go up in order to meet the manufacturing increases; and this will give other workers a firm foundation upon which to demand their increase in pay. The War Labor Board refuses to budge an inch in granting pay to other types of workers, but for the highly organized groups, there is always a way—when you have a labor leader with an iron jaw, like Lewis.

The destruction by the Japs of Manila is terrible. It will cost 2½ millions to repair the damage done to the electric plant of the city. That is only the beginning. The years of work and millions of dollars which the United States spent in building a substantial Manila has gone to wreck at the hands of the Japs. MacArthur saved the city when the Japs attacked in 1941. Manila has no military value, but it furnished the Japs an opportunity to expose their savagery.

President Roosevelt made a strong appeal to the nation Thursday to follow the proposal of the Big Three. While he was unable to disclose the program at this time, he did a great service in coming before the Congress and the people before peace plans were presented. He is avoiding the fatal mistake of Woodrow Wilson in not taking Congress and the people into his confidence as to the League of Nations. However, it is likely that Wilson was not sure that his plan would succeed even at the peace table. This time we know that some plan must be adopted, and backed by a strong hand, or another war will be fought in 25 years. This time, the American people are determined to see to it that this nation does not block the peace plan, as we did in 1919. The President presented two points which he drove home—that peace is not a partisan question, and that America must accept her responsibility in maintaining the peace. Republican reaction to his speech is not so favorable as it should be, but is about all that would be expected immediately following such a speech. The Republicans charge that Roosevelt did not tell the nation much of the conference, which is the truth, but probably as much as he could until Germany is whipped. But there is no dissent to the proposition that we must accept our responsibility to maintain the peace. Every American certainly realizes now that we can never avoid any sort of a world war. We shall be called upon to foot the bill of any great war. It is cheaper to maintain the peace than to have a war. These meetings of representatives of the Big Three, to which all United Nations will be invited in the future, will iron out the prevailing difficulties which existed a few months ago.

A few weeks ago a few thousand Yanks were reported AWOL in Paris. Some of them were actual deserters and drifted into Paris to operate the black market. A number were convicted by court martial. Most of the men had become lost from their units during the drive of the Germans. It is now reported that most of these men are back with their units, and no particular damage was done. Yet it made every American rather ashamed to think that 13,000 American soldiers should be classified as AWOL. Any man who wears the uniform should respect that uniform. But here at home we tolerate a condition much more fearful and tragic than a few thousand soldiers who are not at their post. In spite of manpower shortage, and the demand of the government for the "fight or work" bill, we see 30,000 soldiers on the home front walk off their jobs simply because seven union men were caught loafing and were fired. In other words, according to union rules the seven men could tie up needed production in critical war production, and 30,000 other men would uphold these seven in their rights to loaf on the job. What can be done about it? Absolutely nothing! We have a labor government and labor is running Washington. It does no good to use your choice cuss words against such practice or against the 30,000 who deserted our fighting men. Congress is getting a little backbone in fighting such practices, but not sufficient really to get the job done.

We've lost track of the number of amendments which are proposed to the Texas constitution. But there are a lot of them, and several have passed either the Senate or the House. None of them have passed both houses, according to our memory. Now it is proposed that a constitutional convention shall be called to give the state a new constitution, rather than keep on patching up the old document. The objection is raised that this is not the opportune time for such a convention. It is suggested that this be deferred until after the war. We have been hearing this objection for the past 30 years. People are afraid of such conventions. The time was not too far in the distance when people were afraid to vote for amendments to the constitution. In recent years practically every proposed amendment has been adopted. If honest, sincere men and women could be elected and would spend sufficient time in writing the constitution, the fundamental law of the state could be greatly improved. However, in 1925 there was a recodification of the state's laws. An old man in his dotage was largely responsible for rewriting the laws, and such a mess was made. It took the legislature and the courts years to straighten out the mess. We don't want such a thing to happen again.

Henry Wallace finally got his job, minus the power to run the loan agencies of the government. Wallace announced a big program for his Department of Commerce. He will call in many national leaders to help him create 60 million jobs after the war. There is good politics in such a move. There are not 60 million jobs in America, and no one knows this better than Wallace. Neither is there a chance to boost wages after the war, which Wallace also knows. Private enterprise will be called upon to furnish these jobs, and to boost wages. Private enterprise will naturally fail in such an undertaking, which Wallace also knows. What then? Wallace will tell the nation that free enterprise cannot do for the people what the government can do; so the government must step in and run the show. Wallace is a candidate for president in 1948. He wants an appeal to the masses. Promising jobs at high wages will do the trick, figures Henry. Government operation of all kinds of jobs is right down his alley. A dozen men can be put to work doing the job which should be cut out for three or four, with the government footing the bill. It's a very, very pretty picture, until you start to figure out as to who shall pay the bill for this socialistic experiment. The dear people will be the goat. The $2,000 which each and every man, woman and child now owes will be a mere trifle in comparison to the national debt that we will have if Henry gets his hands on the nation's pursestrings.

Poor old De Gaulle. He is miffed at the Big Three. Roosevelt and Churchill did not object to having De Gaulle at their recent conference. But practical Joe Stalin did not want to have an idealist in the way while the Big Three were trying to thrash out an important program. Stalin said, "No," most emphatically, to which Roosevelt and Churchill agreed. They could do nothing else. If France is to take her place as a major nation, she has a lot of house cleaning at home. De Gaulle may be able to do the job, but more likely he will fail. His refusal to meet Roosevelt shows his childish attitude.

Both Churchill and Roosevelt have defended their change of attitude toward Poland. There is nothing else for them to do. Stalin told them how he was going to settle the Polish question, and in this instance Churchill and Roosevelt became yes-men. That was something new for them.

For years the Dallas News has not minced words when talking about a condition which exists in Dallas, and every other town in the state. But most other newspapers hesitate to hold before its readers the true facts. A fight is being made in Dallas against venereal disease. The Dallas News has printed columns of educational matter, and has exposed conditions in a fearless manner. On Friday a little item was carried on juvenile cases. Of 20 cases run in by the police, 17 juveniles had venereal disease. Yet, there are a lot of people who refuse to admit that America has a youth problem which is very, very serious. Youth of today is no worse, or no better than youth of past years, but there are more avenues for cussedness open today than ever before. Serious study of the youth problem should be seriously considered in each community—starting with the cussedness which prevails among the elders.

We are told that the situation in Canada is much more critical than most citizens of the United States realizes. French Canada is solidly opposed to the balance of the Dominion. Deepseated political and social cleavage are at work to disrupt the country. A tragic situation may result.

Veterans of World War II who are running the new organization, Amvets, are having trouble. CIO is branded by some of the vets as communistic, while others uphold the declaration. The young group is running into all kinds of internal friction as different groups of Amvets express their opinion.

THOSE CREEPING COSTS

No housewife needs to be told that living costs have risen substantially in recent years. She comes in contact with this unpleasant fact almost daily in the course of shopping. In respect to other costs, such as building a home, for example, many people are living in blissful ignorance. If fire should destroy their homes they would awake with a shock to the realization that those homes were a lot more valuable than they had thought —and that in the light of today's values, were inadequately insured.

Never before was it so essential to prevent fire and never before was it so necessary to check values periodically and insure accordingly. Regardless of adequacy of insurance protection, there is a good chance that much property destroyed by fire at the present time cannot be replaced at any price.

The fire insurance industry is doing everything within its power to prevent fire, through various organizations designed for that purpose. Chief of these is the National Board of Fire Underwriters. Its engineering staff, operating in every state, has brought about standardization of fire-fighting equipment, better fire resistive construction of buildings, and other advancements. It cooperates with public authorities in curbing mischievous incendiarists, and arsonists who set fires for profit. Model legislation for local supervision of fire hazards and for other means of control also are constantly studied and recommended by the Board's experts. It also initiated fire prevention week.

All of these things the fire insurance industry is doing on behalf of fire prevention. The least that property owners can do in return is to observe caution individually.

Eddie Castleberry Will Direct P. E. at Memphis

Memphis High School has employed a new football coach and physical education director—Eddie Castleberry of West Texas State College. He will be in Memphis on March 15 to take charge of the spring training and will report back there again on September 1 to begin his regular duties as a member of the faculty.

Eddie was formerly of Vernon but has been living in Canyon where he is now a senior of West Texas State and was captain of the Buffalo football team for 1944-45 his third year of playing with the eleven. He served in the Marines for 21 months, both in the reserves and in active duty. A few months ago he received a physical discharge.

Castleberry will have charge of all athletics at the high school, Supt. W. C. Davis of Memphis announced.

Coaching in Memphis High School this last year has been divided between Supt. Davis and Buren Carr, the principal. Mr. Davis coached the Cyclone football team and it finished second in the district. The basketball team, coached by Mr. Carr also finished second. At the present Mr. Davis is coaching the boxing team.

Custodian School Scheduled for June 13 to 23

A second School for Custodians will be held by West Texas State College as a summer session service.

Dates for the school are June 13-23. The 1945 school will be four days longer than the 1944. It is believed by those in charge that it can be made much more profitable by extending its length.

The Custodians' School is a cooperative enterprise of West Texas State College and Texas A. and M. Arrangements for the school have been made by Mr. Virgil Henson, business manager of the college. Its promotion is through the Bureau of Public Service.

You're a complete failure if you are a success at dodging work.

Home Economists Direct Sewing Machine Clinic

Sponsored by the Randall County Unit of Home Economists, a sewing machine clinic was held on Friday, February 23, in the clothing department of the Canyon High School. Miss Elizabeth Cox, demonstrated the cleaning of machines and discussed the common adjustments which frequently need to be made. According to Miss Cox, the machine should be cleaned in this order:

1. Remove needle, thread, bobbin, presser foot, slide plate, bobbin plate, throat plate, armplate, and faceplate.

2. Clean oil holes and all places where there are bearings; use cleaning fluid applied with a brush or from an oil can such as is made for oiling machines.

3. Turn back head of machine and clean all parts with fluid.

4. Use pointed instrument to remove dirt; when machine is very dirty, it may be necessary to apply fluid, let it remain over night, and remove dirt after it has become softened.

5. See that the piece of red or gray felt in the shuttle race is oiled; if it has been lost, replace it with felt or a small piece of wool thread.

6. Pull piece of cloth moistened with cleaning fluid between tension discs.

7. Remove clutch from balance wheel and clean washers.

8. At each place on treadling mechanism where there are bearingss, remove threads and clean with fluid.

9. Apply oil at each oil hole and at each bearing in both the top and the treadling parts; run machine to distribute oil; remove excess with soft rag.

10. Replace all parts.

Following the demonstration, a round table discussion was held and an exhibit of articles made from feed sacks was shown.

Arrangements for the clinic were made by Mrs. Ewell Fowler, homemaking instructor at Canyon High School, Mrs. George Archer, and Misses Margaret Barrett, Roxana Ruth Ford, and Elizabeth Cox of the Home Economics Department of W. T. S. C.

Common machine difficulties as discussed at the meeting:

1. What should I do when the thread breaks frequently? Breaking of thread is usually caused by the incorrect threading of the machine; check the placement of the bobbin and the threading of the upper part of the machine carefully. If the needle is incorrectly inserted, the thread will break. Observe the needle to see that it is the correct size and length, that it is smooth, and that the flat side of the needle is placed in the flat side of the needle bar.

2. What causes machine needles to break? Usual causes of breaking are: (1) the use of a needle not made for the type machine being used, (2) failure to insert the needle correctly, and (3) excessive pulling on the cloth as it is being stitched.

3. Instead of locking correctly, the machine stitching lies flat on the surface of the cloth. What causes this? If the loose stitches are on the top of the cloth, the lower tension may be too loose or the upper tension too tight; the bobbin may be incorrectly placed or unthreaded. If the loose stitches are on the lower side of the cloth, the upper tension may be too loose or the lower tension too tight. In either case, a dirty or linty machine may be the disturbing element.

4. What can I do to prevent my machine from skipping stitches? See that the needle is absolutely straight and is set in the needle bar correctly. Be sure that the thread being used is the correct size for the needle.

5. Cloth feeds through too rapidly, resulting in imperfect stitching. What causes this? Most common causes for this are: (1) using a much worn feed dog, (2) turning the stitch regulator in too far, and (3) elevating presser bar too much.

6. When I sew on thin materials, the cloth pulls. How can this be avoided? In most instances, loosening the tension will correct the difficulty. Sewing on strips of paper may prove practical.

7. When the machine fails to make a stitch, what is the cause? Look to the needle: it may be too short to catch the lower thread. An extremely tight tension may be at fault. Check the placement of the bobbin in the case.

8. Why does thread wind unevenly on the bobbin? The bobbin winder may be slightly sprung; gentle pressure to straighten it is the solution.

9. What can be done when the machine fails to throw out of gear and the needle bar continues to move when the bobbin is being wound? The clutch may need cleaning. Remove the parts from the right side of the balance wheel, clean, and replace them. If the machine needle still moves, remove the washer, rotate one-half turn, and replace it.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION
THE STATE OF TEXAS

To Joan O'Connor Cousins, Defendant, Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to appear before the Honorable District Court of Randall County at the Court House thereof, in Canyon, Texas, at or before 10 o'clock A. M. of the first Monday next after the expiration of forty-two days from the date of the issuance of this citation, the same being the 16th day of April A. D. 1945, then and there to answer Plaintiff's Petition filed in said Court, on the 22nd day of January A. D. 1945, in this cause, numbered 1840 on the docket of said court and styled Ralph P. Cousins, Plaintiff vt. Joan O'Connor, Defendant.

A brief statment of the nature of this suit is as follows, to wit: Plaintiff sues the defendant for divorce, alleging they were married November 15, 1925, in the State of New York, and that they lived together as husband and wife until about January 14, 1937, when on account of cruel treatment of plaintiff by defendent, which such ill treatment was of such a nature as to render their living together insupportable, plaintiff was compelled to and did abandon the defendant, since which time the parties have lived separately and have not resumed the martail relationship. No children were born to said marriage and the parties adopted no children; and that there are no property rights to be adjusted and adjudicated between the parties; and plaintiff's prayer for judgment for divorce dissolving the bonds of matrimony between plaintiff and defendant and for such other relief plaintiff may be entitled to receive, as is more fully shown by Plaintiff's Petition on file in this suit.

The officer executing this process shall promptly execute the same according to law, and make due return as the law directs.

SORELLE AND BURROW SPEAK TO BOOK CLUB

At the meeting of the Woman's Book Club in Thompson's club room February 28, Mrs. I. W. SoRelle and Mrs. C. R. Burrow lead the discussion.

"Is Education the Best in the World" was the subject of the paper presented by Mrs. SoRelle. Startling facts on percentage of the educated in the United States were given. Education in foreign countries was discussed. All revealed yesterday's education will not do for post-war. There must be a more organized education. Special schools must be for the needs of returning soldiers.

Mrs. Burrow followed on the program with a discussion of the subject "Is the U. S. Developing a Positive Foreign Policy?" We are responsible for our foreign policy was a strong point brought out in this paper. Ideas as expressed by Sumner Welles in his recent book "Time for Decision" were given to depict our policy from early days to now.

At the short business meeting the club voted to donate to the Red Cross. Mrs. B. B. Holland was voted in as a new member.

The following members were present: Mrs. R. A. Neblett, Mrs. H. K. Standley, Mrs. S. L. Ingham, Mrs. S. H. Condron, Mrs. Alfred Bellah, Mrs. Ted Reid, Mrs. Nancy McCaslin, Mrs. Lee Johnson, Mrs. D. TEXAS EXES MEET WITH J. B. SPEER'S SUNDAY

Among other interesting varieties provided at the annual get-together of the University of Texas "exes" Sunday evening at the J. B. Speer home was an "emotional shampoo," given members of the club by membership chairman Lee Johnson, in the form of music reminiscent of life at Texas U. through the years. With the help of W. F. Haggard, of the program committee, Dr. Johnson provided each guest with a song sheet listing, by years popular song titles. He then proceeded to call the roll by years; each guest answered to his year by singing a snatch from a song popular during his stay at the university. The results were delightfully varied and amusing. The oldest song sung was Dr. Hill's "A Bird in a Gilded Cage," from 1902; the most rollicking: "Pistol Packin' Mamma," sung by Herschell Coffee.

After the musical mixer, Miss Maude Cuenod sang as a solo, "Come to my Bower," which was sung by the Texas soldiers at the Battle of San Jacinto and is one of T. U.'s traditional songs.

Another unusual feature of the program, a parody on Holmes' poem, "The Boys," done by Mrs. Tommie Montfort, and called "The Rogues Gallery," was a candid camera view of the members of the local club.

Dr. J. Frank Dobie, who was to have been guest speaker at the meeting, was unable to come because the plane he was to board at Ft. Worth was cancelled on account of the weather. Members of the club heard Dr. Dobie later, however, when he spoke in College assembly Tuesday.

Officers of the Randall County exes chosen for the coming year are: Herschell Coffee, president; Agnes Charlton, vice president; Lee Sullivan, secretary-treasurer; Tommie Montfort, reporter.

Canyon Members Give Amarillo D. A. R. Program

Miss Margaret Barrett, head of the economics department of West Texas State College in Canyon, spoke to members and guests of the Esther McCrory Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon in the Federation Club Rooms. Her topic was "Life and Customs of the People of Thailand."

Miss Barrett's parents were missionaries to that country, and she was born in Siam. She has moving pictures of this region which she showed at the meeting.

A trio of girls from W. T. S. C., composed of Misses Mary Lee Abbott, Mary Evelyn Foster and Winnie Fred Ramage, accompanied by Miss Anita Davis, provided musical selections on the program.

Mrs. Tom Knighton and Mrs. John S. Humphreys of Canyon were the program directors.

Frank Dobie Was Speaker Tuesday at Rotary Lunch

Frank Dobie, university professor and author, talked Tuesday at the Rotary Club luncheon. He was introduced by Dr. J. A. Hill.

Mr. Dobie paid high tribute to Mr. Hill as an educator. He called him the "pick of the teachers college presidents." The museum was highly praised. There is no place on earth with so much documentary material as found in the museum. Texas was criticised for having done so little to preserve its frontier history.

Mr. Dobie spent a year in England. College professors are regarded very highly in England, according to the speaker. Mr. Dobie compared our government with that of England.

Business was criticised for attempting to "run" educational affairs of Texas. Mr. Dobie took a slap at Governor Stevenson and the Board of Regents for the manner in which the University of Texas had been handled. He termed Senator O'Daniel as ignorant, and that we can expect very little from our Senate when such men are elected to public office. "It is not Democracy when we elect to public office someone who knows no more than we do."

Visitors were: W. J. Hiatt, F. R. Barnes, Pinkey Vineyard, C. R. Janak, O. K. Lewis, Emil F. Myers, John McKnight, John McCarty, E. Jobe, all of Amarillo; C. R. Burrow, R. M. Hays, Jack Douglas, J. C. McKenzie, of Canyon.

Boone To Preach Baptist Revival

Dr. Joseph P. Boone, pastor of First Baptist Church in Waxahachie, will preach twice daily during the revival at the First Baptist Church, Canyon, March 18-30, according to announcement by pastor Roy L. Johnson.

Dr. Boone will be of much interest to the young people since he was the first Baptist Student Secretary in Texas when the present student work was begun on Texas college campuses. He later was pastor in Tuscaloosa, Alabama, and served as a professor of Bible in the Baptist Bible Chair of the University of Alabama. He is active in the work of his denomination in Texas, and is chairman of the Bible Chair Committee which gives oversight to the various Bible Chairs maintained for the benefit of students in Texas colleges. The committee operates as a part of the work of the Executive Board of the Baptist General Convention of Texas, of which Dr. Roy L. Johnson in Canyon is a member. Dr. Boone has indicated the desire of the committee to offer Bible courses to college students in Canyon as part of the present program of enlargement of the Bible teaching work of his committee. While in Canyon he will confer with college officials pertaining to this teaching, by which Baptists would furnish and pay a professor whose training and teaching would meet college requirements for credit.

Clay County, Arkansas, produced one great man, my Grandpa used to say—and the great man was T. H. Caraway, "Thad," everybody used to call him.

He taught country school and studied law. By and by, he became district attorney, then Congressman, then United States Senator and he was the sharpest-tongued debater up there. Then when he died, his widow was elected to the Senate—and so Clay County has produced two statesmen, one of which is a stateswoman.

The county's favorite store concerning Caraway was about an incident away back when he was a young lawyer in Piggott and he wanted to run down on the train to Rector, which is just the second stop to the south, Greenway being the first—and Hammett's doesn't count because it was only a flag station and isn't even that, anymore.

But the yellow fever epidemic was on in New Orleans (or maybe it was Memphis) and so anyone traveling had to have a health certificate or they wouldn't let him off the train. Well, both the Piggott physicians were out in the country so Caraway appealed to the village druggist-justice of the peace, J. P. Potter, who fixed up a document and put it in an envelope.

When Caraway got off the train at Rector and proferred the envelop the marshal waved it aside, as he knew the visitor and where he was from—besides the marshal couldn't read. The attorney finished his business in a few hours and boarded the afternoon train to return home. Of course, he wouldn't need any credentials there as everybody knew he had left that morning. Idly, he took the certificate that his friend, the justice of the peace, had drawn up and here is what he read:

"Know all men by these presents, to whom it may concern, greetings:

"This is to certify that the bearer, Hon. T. H. Caraway, was never known to miss a meal or pay a bill in his life.

"Witness my hand and seal,

"J. P. Potter, P. P."

No speaker who kept an eye cocked to see if the reporters were writing down what he was saying has ever made a great speech. A speaker must lose himself in what he is saying—and then the result will speak for itself.

A man must forget himself into greatness.

WAS IT YOU?

In the lunchroom the other day this was overheard:

"I think it's just terrible the way civilians have to give up things for the soldiers when they waste so much. Service cooks rake perfectly good food into the garbage and I've heard that tons of sugar just waste away in warehouses."

Whoever made this statement was talking just because he thought it sounded good to complain against the government; not because he really believed it.

Don't say such things! even if they were a fraction true there is reason behind the government's rationing and limiting civilians other than the shortage of materials.

Don't gripe! It doesn't make one any bigger in the eyes of humanity and doesn't make anyone any happier.

—By Margaret Lair.

HAVE YOU TRIED THIS?

What do you do with your spare time? Is it spent in idling around home and town? Or do you do something useful, such as improving your vocabulary? Have you ever stopped to think how much one can learn in ten minutes of real concentration?

Try it sometime. When there is nothing else to do, pick up a newspaper or even better an encyclopedia and study it thoughtfully for ten minutes. Make a habit of doing this once a day for a week. Then take an inventory of your new knowledge and ask yourself if your time has been well spent!

Committee chairmen who completed the plans for the Youth Center were: registration, Louise Tucek; decorations, Frances Gooch; snack bar, Mary Alice Browning; music, Norma Jo Currie; refreshments, Betty Ann Miller; invitations, Geraldine Small; and games, Dorothy Gafford.

Did You Know That—

Ellen Sanders' father used to be president of the school board of CHS?

Laura Ruth Thurmon is quite a talented singer and piano player?

Mrs. Kate Donnel Brewster's major in college was homemaking?

Canyon High School is planning to have football next year?

Charles Taylor, Kenneth Vaughan, and James Meroney have all won medals in diving and are all good swimmers?

Thirty-five students have withdrawn from Canyon High and thirty-five have enrolled since school started?

Did you know all that? Huh? Did you?

Committee Picks Junior Who's Who

CACTUS CAL

I would never write this if I thought anyone would read it or anything like that. I wouldn't want to give Shakespeare too much stiff competition.

Romeo Kelso, Jr., has really been giving Marilyn Small the "go-around." Where does her dream boy, Harley Hicks, fit into the picture?

Everyone is wondering what young chick kissed Donal Iverson. After all, Donal, lipstick is supposed to be for girls.

Louise Tucek seems to think George Schaeffer's car is really swell.

How was it that Junior Goodman managed to be the only boy locked in Mrs. Dunsworth's room with Donna Erwin, June Long, Martha Hales, and Joanna Haines?

Billie Ponder surely likes to go home with Bobbye Lee Graham over the week-ends. I wonder if there could be any connection with that Hudson Bus driver.

Dedicated to Charles Ray Kelso by a number of senior girls:
Your eyes are blue
Your hair is red
A kiss from you
Would raise the dead.

Say, Earl Lock Neff and Tommy Thompson, where did you get that technique for borrowing another fellow's girl which you so ably displayed over the week-end?

Lunchroom Provides Daily Nourishment

Furnishing food with nutritional values, the Canyon High School lunch room, located on the third floor, daily serves hot meals and half a pint of milk to the students of the grade and high schools.

Well balanced food bought at local stores is served in the portions necessary to fill one-third of the daily food requirements. The meal contains required vitamins and calories in protein foods, cooked vegetables, fresh vegetables, and a sufficient amount of easily digested sweets.

When too many young men were found to be unfit physically for military service, Federal authorities, investigating the cause, found that the average student gulps down a hasty noon lunch of hamburgers or hot dogs, an ice-cold pop and a bar of candy. Such lunches are not digestible and prevent proper physical and mental development. In schools where balanced lunches are served physical and mental records show a marked rise.

Man is the only animal that can be skinned more than once.

Seldom does the one who really needs advice ask for it.

Grade Notes

New grade school students are Sidney Plant from Cameron in Mrs. A. L. Walsh's first grade, Clare May Hogge from Amarillo in Mrs. Roscoe Davis' second grade and Delores McDaniels from Oklahoma City in Mrs. T. W. Collins' first grade.

Pupils of Mrs. H. P. Doughty and Mrs. A. K. Goodman are begining a unit on the study of Holland.

Mrs. A. K. Goodman's third grade is buying a large quantity of war stamps because fathers of six students and brothers of five others are in the armed services.

To honor her daughter Florence's birthday, Mrs. T. M. Hacker gave a party for Mrs. T. W. Collins' first grade. Favors of small flags, napkins, and cake decorations carried out the patriotic theme. Indoor games were played and refreshments of ice cream and cake were served. Mrs. Hacker was assisted by Mrs. Loyd McAtee and Mrs. Elfry.

Anna Marie Barker is back in Mrs. T. W. Collins' first grade class after undergoing a tonsillectomy.

Texas Independence Day was commemorated by Mrs. John Davis' students with a program of patriotic songs and poems.

John Brandt, president; Charlie Wesley, vice-president; and Opal Joyce Brant, secretary are the new officers in Mrs. W. E. Miller's home room.

Officers in Mrs. John Davis' class are Merle Bullard, president; Stanley Lair, vice-president; and Walton Byrd, secretary-treasurer.

Fourth graders under Mrs. L. M. Cousins are beginning a letter writing unit. Students are writing letters to their friends in the class describing the customs of different countries. They have re-done their Valentine post office and are posting their letters in this.

Staff Completes Annual Make-up

Following a week of intense work, staff members mailed the final copy of the Canyon High School annual, "Soaring Wings," last Friday.

Students will receive their annuals about May 20 and will pay the money due on them at that time. According to present calculations the remaining sum will not be more than one dollar.

Work on the annual is being done by the Taylor Engraving Company of Dallas.

Classes Discuss Various Plans

Parties and Picnics Take Lead in Group Business

Party plans were the main topics of discussion in class meetings Friday.

Plans are being made by the seniors for a combination barn dance, tacky, and chile supper party tomorrow night. A committee was appointed to investigate a trip to Carlsbad Cavern in the spring. Members of the class decided to order white coveralls for spring activities.

Juniors discussed the type of program for the assembly which they will give March 23.

Frances Gooch was elected by the sophomores to take the secretarial position formerly held by Nell Drake. Sophomores are in charge of the Youth Center tonight. A play, "Two Faults," was the program.

Freshmen voted to have their party March 16. The program was a game in which boys told what they liked in girls and girls what they liked in boys.

Eighth graders discussed funds and plans for a picnic. They had a short program which was put on by some of Mrs. Glenn Dowlen's voice students. Verna Davenport and Louise Prichard sang "Cowboy's Sweetheart." Frankie Sneed sang "I Love Life" and "Indian Love Call," and Mary Lee McGehee sang "Gypsy Love Song." Benny Woods and Jimmy Lindsey led the group in the singing of "Ac-cent-chu-ate the Positive."

Practice for the assembly to be given tomorrow by the seventh grade took up the period for this class meeting.

Teachers Choose Production Cast

Mrs. Dan Sanders, senior class sponsor, announced last Monday that senior play practice will begin within the next two weeks when the play books arrive.

Miss Birdie Clea Crabtree will work with Mrs. Sanders as co-director of the play, "My Cousin From Texas."

Cast members, selected by three teachers—Mrs. Emma Gene Jackson, Mrs. Kate Donnell Brewster, and Miss Crabtree, are as follows: Peaceful, Billye Ponder; Eshew, Bobby Black; Sheila, Ellen Sanders; Doris, Margaret Lair; Lucille, Sue Ann Moreman; Tommy, Betty Brown; Beulah, Ellen Root; Preston, Harley Hicks; Cactus, J. Spencer Winn; and Johnny Benton, Tommy Thompson.

Nothing is believed more than what we know least.

Terrifying Tutor Is Blue Monday Jinx

A cold, dull Monday. Why dull? Now everybody knows a person is simply too busy over week-ends to do a lot of studying. Why do we have to have assignments over week-ends anyway? Heartless teachers! That's it; perfectly heartless. These teachers are always thinking of something to keep us busy as all "get-out."

Now it's time for Spanish II. Hope I'm not called on to conjugate those verbs in today's lesson. Yes, she is calling for volunteers. Gee, she's looking right at me! I'm a goner. I positively do not have a chance. What can I do? I'm desperate. O, yes, I can run sharpen my pencil. She will think I'm very eager to work and am making preparations. Hey, what's this? This pencil sharpener is dull. I'm glad no one has thought to put one of those new blades on it. Maybe I can grind and grind to kill time. Just my luck, teacher is offering me her eversharp!

Now I hear, "Take the translation on page 28 and give it orally." My heart sinks like a two-ton block buster on D-day. Wish I were in Iwo Jima or Germany, then I'd not have these things to worry about. Say, a fellow doesn't have a chance to get out of all this work, does he?

To the Canadian basketball team we extend congratulations for winning the Regional 1-A Tournament. We're sorry Friona lost the first game to Levelland—we were counting on them to represent our district at State.

Intramurals start next week after two weeks' practice. They will run about two weeks. Each team plays every other team. At the present it looks like the seniors have a pretty good chance of winning, but we can't safely say because one never knows. Does one?

The trophy and silver basketballs have been ordered and will be presented to the winning and the best players of the intramurals.

Four Girls Gain Society Rating

Achievements Earn Yearly Congratulatory Standing

Four junior girls—Louise Dickinson, Bonnie Drake, Cheri Kilchriste, and Bobbie Lee Graham—will appear in Junior Who's Who, an honorary society for juniors, having been chosen by Supt. J. B. Speer and a faculty committee for scholarship, personality, and cooperation.

Louise, who has been with this class for two years, was vice-president of the Spanish Club last year. She is now a member of the Future Homemakers of Texas and the volley ball team for the second year, one of the pep leaders, and a member of the Press Club.

Captain of the volley ball team of '43-'44 was Bonnie Drake, who has attended Canyon High for two years. In her sophomore year she was representative for Pearl Harbor Day Sweetheart and a member of Future Homemakers of Texas. This year she has been pep leader, a member of the Student Faculty Congress, a candidate for F. F. A. Sweetheart and a member of the Press Club.

Bobbie Lee Graham, an active student of Canyon High School and a member of the Future Homemakers of Texas, hopes to become a doctor and is keenly interested in science.

Class favorite of the junior class is Cheri Kilchriste, a member of Future Homemakers of Texas. Cheri has also been secretary-treasurer of this group for two years.

Museum Items Are Praised by Dr. Paul McGrew

Paul O. McGrew, paleontologist from the Chicago Natural History Museum, put to use last week the paleontology and geology laboratory located in the basement of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum. The laboratory had not been used extensively since the departure of Dr. Archie MacAlpin, professor of geology.

Dr. McGrew is working on a taxonomic revision of fossil horses in the United States and Canada. His survey of fossil horses will cover every museum and every college which has a paleontological collection.

"Collecting plaster molds of teeth of prehistoric horses would not interest many people," said Dr. McGrew. "But I am particularly interested in one fauna in your museum because I have not found it elsewhere on my travels." The particular fossils are of the late Pliocene period.

West Texas State College is the third college Dr. McGrew has visited. Following his work in this part of the country, Dr. McGrew will return to Chicago to compile his findings. His next trip will include colleges and museums in the eastern part of the United States and Canada.

Santa Fe, as the map above shows, is an important lap on the "Route to Tokyo."

That's why, during the past several months, travelers have seen armies of "Men at Work" all along our lines.

Capacity of our yards has been increased.

Curves have been ironed out so trains may get around them faster.

New Diesel "head ends" are pulling bigger loads up mountain grades.

Ingenious Centralized Traffic Control Systems have been installed at important points so the same rails can carry 50 per cent more traffic.

A new Santa Fe bridge is now being built across the Colorado River.

We have enlarged our capacity to meet the increasing loads of war. There will be no slackening of our job until the war is completely won.

THAT'S JUST WHAT WAR BONDS ARE FOR!

EVERYBODY'S PLANNING. Recent farm surveys show that a majority of the people who own their own farms are ready, the minute war ends, to build and repair barns and buildings and make many other improvements. Tenants, too, are on the lookout for farms of their own to build on in the postwar period. This is going to take many millions of dollars. Wise farmers have been saving the money for these purposes. Many of them have saved it in War Bonds—and many more are on their way.

HOW TO GET READY. You probably have many places on the farm to put money when materials and machinery and equipment are again available —if you have the money! So why not start right now? Step up your savings by buying War Bonds—the best and safest way to invest for future needs.

WHEN THE BOYS COME HOME. Your youngster in service is doing a man's job now—and he expects to do a man's job when he gets home again. But he won't be happy with run-down buildings and inefficient equipment. So that's another good reason for stepping up your purchase of War Bonds. You're backing him up in his fight to preserve our country, and at the same time preparing for the kind of home he wants to come back to.

YOU NEVER GET LESS THAN YOU LEND! And you can get ⅓ more than you invest. When held 10 years, Series E War Bonds yield 2.9% interest compounded semi-annually. You get back $4 for every $3.

Of course, no one should cash a Bond unless he has to; but if an emergency comes along, Uncle Sam will redeem them in cash—at full purchase price—any time after you've held them 60 days. BUY WAR BONDS!

FACTS ABOUT WAR BONDS (Series E)

You LEND Uncle Sam:	Upon Maturity you get back
$18.75	$25.00
37.50	50.00
75.00	100.00
375.00	500.00

All this week a revival is in progress at the Assembly of God Church.

Two evangelist soldiers from Amarillo Field are conducting the services under the direction of the pastor, W. J. Phelps.

Special music and song services are attractions at each evening service.

The public is cordially invited to attend. The hour is 8:00 o'clock.

There is one woman in this world who is always glad to see her husband down and out. She's the flier's wife.
